How To Configure EB Feature List In Gutenberg?

Now, click on the ‘Feature List’ block. A settings panel will appear on the right side of your Gutenberg Editor. You can start customizing and configuring the contents and appearance of the Feature List.

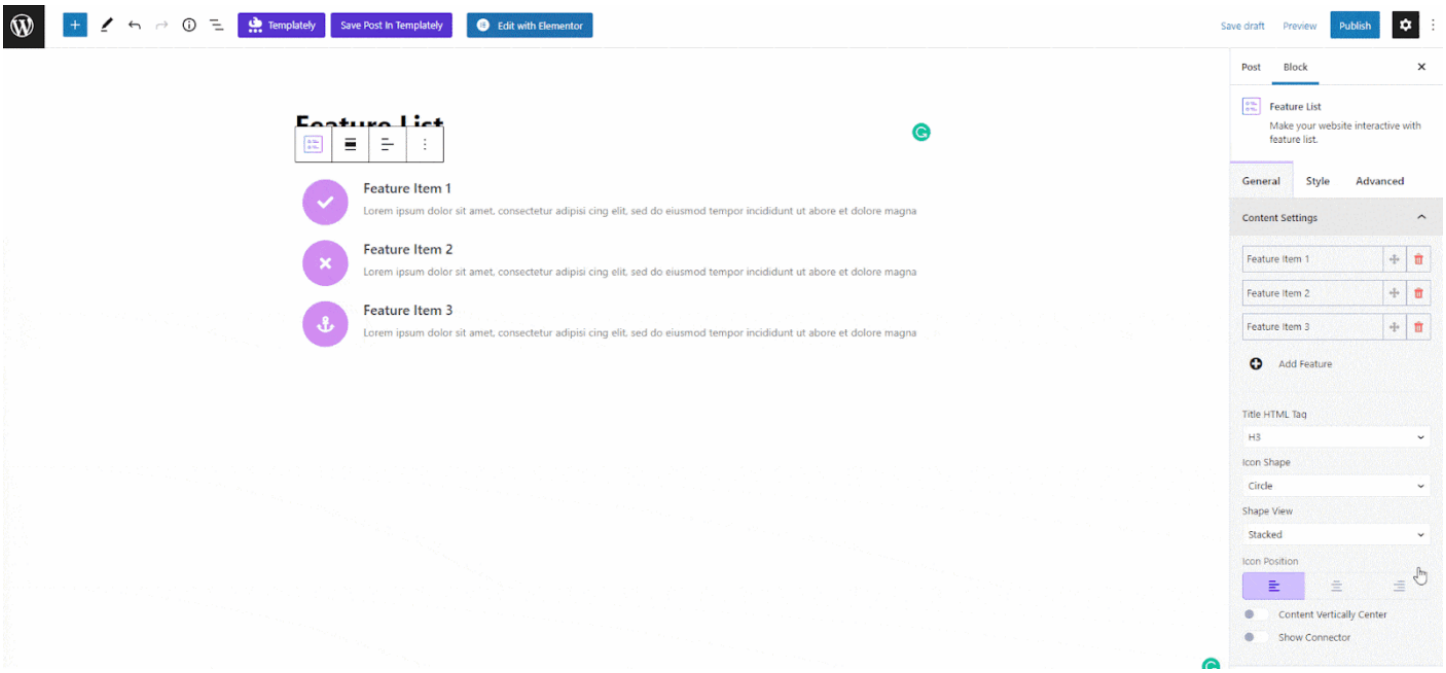

General:

Go to the ‘General’ tab to set the name of the features that you want to highlight. You can set feature list icons, images, and colors or add links as per your preference.

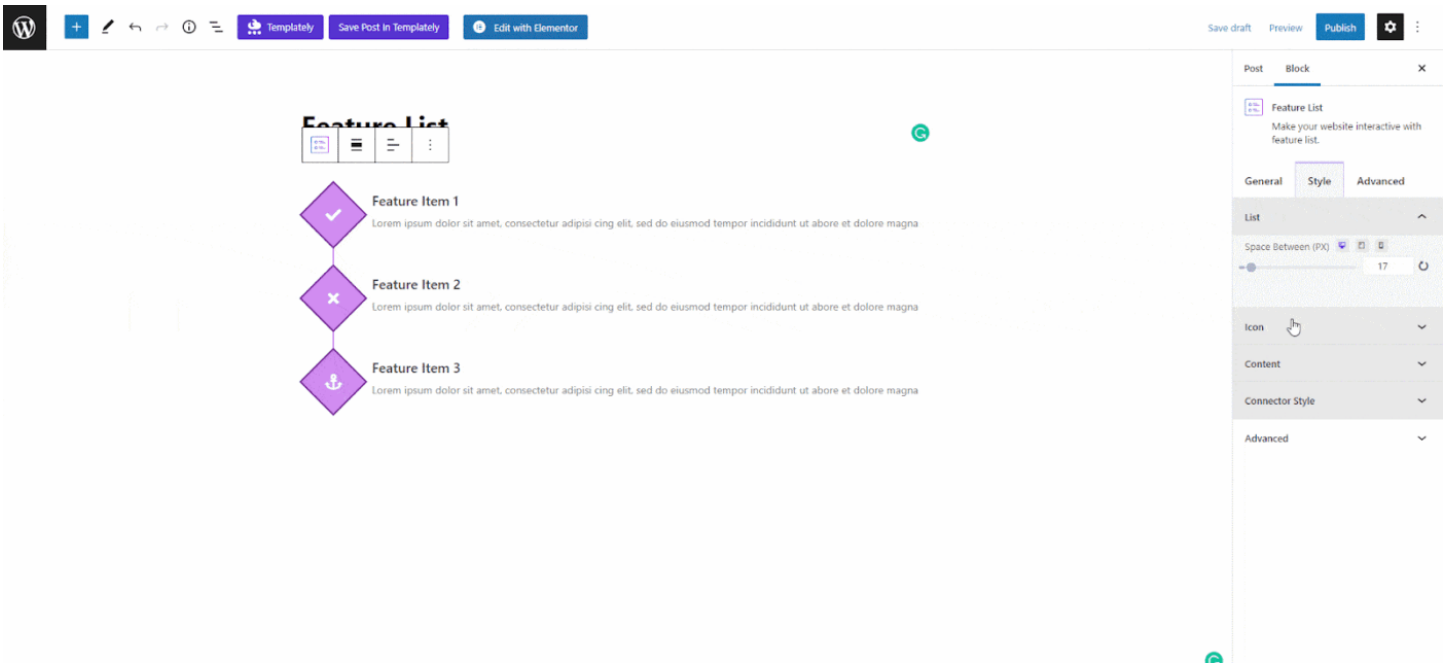

Change the shape of your EB Feature List from the 'Icon Shape' option. Keep it circled, squared, or in a rhombus shape. You can also choose the 'Shape View' whether to keep it stacked or framed. You can add a connector between the lists as well. For that, enable the 'Show Connector' button.

Style Features

From the 'Style' tab, you can change the spacing between the lists. Choose the icon's background color, size, spacing, etc. You can also style the appearance of content color, typography, and description in a fascinating way.

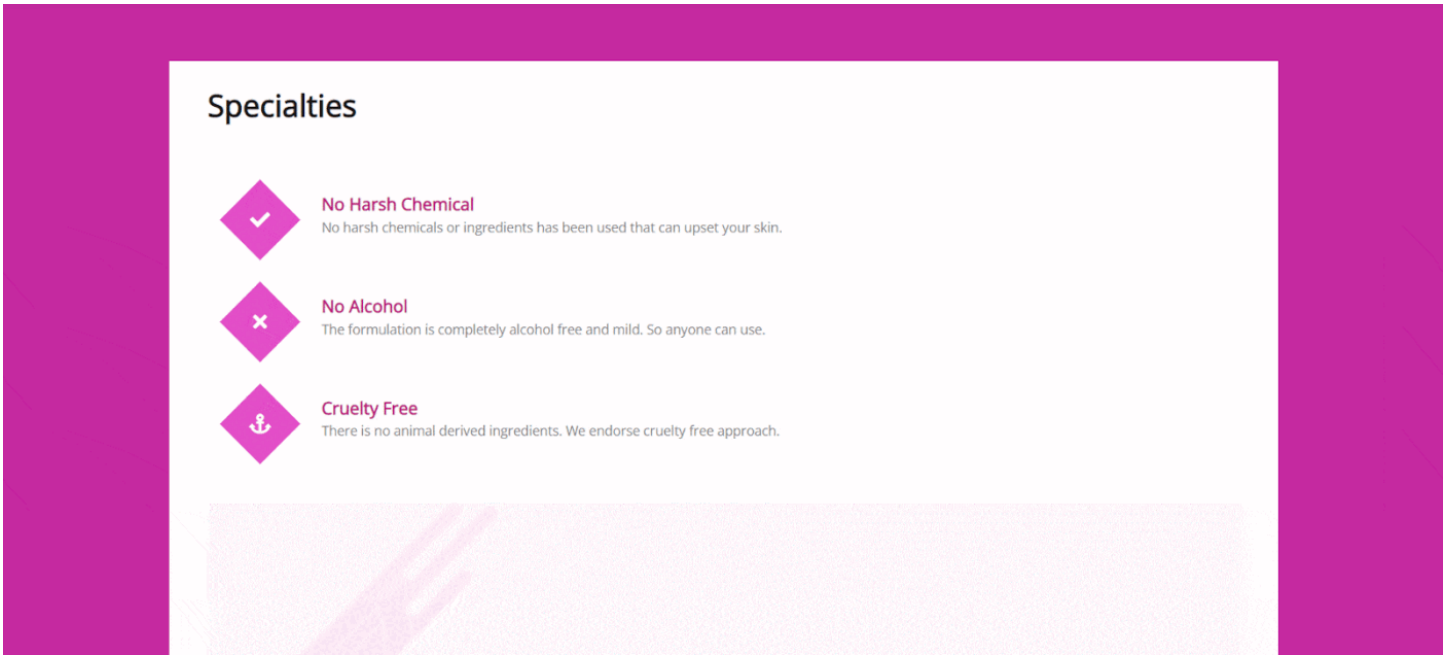

Advanced Features

From the 'Advanced' tab, you can make the feature list appearance more impressive and soothing. Here, you can change the Feature List's 'Margin' and 'Padding'. All advanced block design customization options are available there.
